

---

NTID thanks the following people for their help: The Hon. Frank Horton, former member of the U.S. Congress, for his help in securing Rochester as a site; Jeanette Di Salvo, manager of the Rochester Postal Employees Credit Union, for her help in procuring the "I Love You Stamp" T-shirts; Tom Fortunato, vice president of the Rochester Philatelic Association, and Michael Bickel, Tech VI at the Rochester Post Office, for advice and counsel; and Professor Mark Piterman for exhibiting stamps from his collection.

This material was produced through an agreement between Rochester Institute of Technology and the U.S. Department of Education.

A College of Rochester Institute of Technology

National Technical Institute for the Deaf

I LOVE YOU

First Day Issue in Rochester

STAMP

Opening Ceremonies

Tuesday, September 21, 1993

Robert F. Panara Theatre

Welcome	Dr. William Castle Vice President for Government Relations, RIT Director, NTID
Invocation	Father Butch Mothersell Chaplain, RIT
National Anthem	RIT Concert Band Director, Robert Mowers
Introductions	Dr. Castle
Remarks	John Montague Postmaster, Rochester, New York  Dr. Harold Mowl Jr. Superintendent, Rochester School for the Deaf  Dr. Albert Simone President, RIT  Norman Wright Sr. President, Rochester Philatelic Association  Arkady Belozovsky President, NTID Student Congress  Robert Rice Student Development Educator Coordinator

—
A temporary post office has been set up in the street area outside the theatre so that you can obtain first-day cancellations.