***** EDITORIAL ***** by John Kellas

February saw the start of the RPA Membership DRIVE '78. A special edition of the "H & T" was print and made available to the collecting public at the Collector's Show the last weekend of February. The May 11th RPA Meeting will feature an "Open House" program. RPA members' guests are welcome to come to the Open House. ++++++ The Postal Service Board of Governors named William F. Bolger, 54, a 37-year veteran of government service, to succeed Benjamin F. Bailar as the new Postmaster General. Bolger, Bailar's deputy since 1975, will become the first career postal employee to become postmaster general in more than 30 years. He will take office March 15 and receive a $66,000 salary. ++++++ PHILATELIC SERVICES RETURNS TO ROCHESTER+ The RPA February meeting, featuring the Postmaster of Rochester, served as a sounding board to Rochester's philatelic public. It was announced that Rochester will have a full-service Philatelic Sales Unit at the Main Post Office (Henrietta) scheduled to open late March-early April. As of March 1st there is a philatelic clerk at the Main Post Office whose window will be open Monday-Friday, 2:00-5:00 pm. All the current issues are available through the philatelic clerk. More about Rochester's entrance into the 150 + 1 units around the country in the next "H & T". ++++++ NEW POSTAL RATES may go into effect in mid-April '78 if the Postal Rate Commission has not transmitted its recommended decision in the next 6 weeks. We may end up with the Citizens'/Business first class rates. ++++++ Effective April 1st, Canada's new first class rate, along with other rates, will increase from 12¢ to 14¢.
