LOCAL CANCEL

On April 20, 1993, some Henrietta, NY post office representatives sat up shop in the Henrietta Town Hall as part of the celebration of the town's 175th anniversary.

A special hand cancel was used on collectors covers and the town provided up to three covers that could be serviced and autographed. The Henrietta Postmaster, Samuel Camarata, and Henrietta Supervisor James R. Breese were on hand to sign covers.

The date April 20 has special meaning in the town's history. This was the date the first town meeting was held in 1818.

The cancel will still be available, by mail only, until May 20, 1993. The post office address is: Henrietta Post Office, 3105 East Henrietta Road, Henrietta, New York 14467-9998.

KIDS STAMP SHOW

The Apple Junior Stamp Club will hold it's annual Kids Stamp Show on Saturday May 15 in Tully, N.Y.

The free-admission show is from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Tully Central Junior Senior High School. It is sponsored by USPS' Benjamin Franklin Stamp Club program and the Junior Philatelists of America (JPA). There will be a special pictorial cancellation and cachet show cover.

Theme of this year's show is the JPA's 30th anniversary. It features an open youth exhibition for children 18 and under (RPA members Larry Moriarty and Tom Fortunato will be judging). It also focuses on educational and developmental seminars (RPA member Paul Gerwitz will give a talk on postmark collecting), mini demonstrations and youth activities. There will be non-competitive philatelic exhibits, door prizes, a half dozen or so dealers (Bob Steeb , an RPA member), an awards ceremony and a youth area, as well as the annual featured contest.

This year's contest theme is "Every Stamp Has A Story." Students are to write about one U.S. stamp of their choice in a one-page essay. For more information , contact Carey Sevier, Apple Junior Stamp Club, 3756 Oak Hill Road, Marietta, NY 13110-9731. Mrs Sever was one of the ladies at the ROPEX youth booth who made it such a success. TERMS IN PHILATELY

FRANKED (FREE) COVERS— Refers to letters carried free of charge to sender because of official signature as seen on folded letters, of the pre-envelope period; also on envelopes, written or printed. Free mail, for officials, had its beginnings in the earliest days of the Republic. Free mailing privileges extended to men and women in the armed forces in World War II by Act of Congress. In World War I, as in the war Between the States, soldiers and sailors were permitted to send letters "collect" - the postage fee to be paid by the recipient. Soldiers in the Revolutionary Period enjoyed free mail concessions. ▣

GENERAL COLLECTING— Term applied to collectors who collect stamps of all countries. ▣

GRILL— Small square pyramids in parallel rows impressed or embossed on stamp, with object to break the fibers of the paper so that cancellation ink can soak in making washing for re-use impossible. ▣

MISSION MIXTURES— Stamps collected by religious groups and sold by them by weight. ▣

ON COVER— Term applied to a stamp on the envelope, as originally used. ▣

ON THE NOSE— Term used to signify cancellation is struck squarely on the postage stamp. Popularized by Theodore E. Steinway, of The Steinway Pianos. ▣

ORIGINAL GUM— Stamp described "O.-G." when it has the original gum applied at time it was issued. ▣

OVERPRINT— Any word, inscription or device printed across face of a stamp altering its use, or its locality or its face value, or overprinted for a special purpose (as "Molly Pitcher" in 1928 on 1926-27 stamp; 2-cent stamp, Scott #634. ▣

REGUMMED— Stamp on which gum has been added to simulate original gum and thus fraudulently add to the value of the stamp, since unused stamps having original gum are more desired by collectors. ▣

TIMBROLOGY— French word for Philately. ▣

FACTS & FEATS

The first public postal service in America was established on November 5, 1639, when Richard Fairbanks of Boston was appointed Postmaster of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Postal services were organized in the other English colonies: Virginia (1657), New York (1672), Connecticut (1674), Philadelphia (1683), and New Hampshire (1683). The postal service became a parliamentary monopoly on February 17, 1692. In the previous year Thomas Neale was appointed first Deputy Postmaster General (i.e., under the Postmaster General in London) and charged with the handling of all mails arriving from overseas and destined for the various European settlements in North America. ▣

The worlds longest-running definitive set has been issued by Norway whose posthorn and numeral design has been in continuous use for the lower denominations since 1871. In a period spanning more than a century the series has undergone a number of technical changes. The original series was letterpress printed with values in skilling. Since 1877 the currency has been expressed in øre, from 1882 to 1893 the posthorn was unshaded, from 1893 to 1908 the name NORGE was rendered in seriffed lettering, the design was redrawn in 1909, photogravure was used in 1940-9 and 1950-7, and since then intaglio has been the printing process. Norway even issued two stamps, somewhat belately on May 6, 1972 to celebrate the centenary of the world's oldest design in current use. ▣

The first stamps, other than portraits, to be derived from paintings were two of the US 1869 series. The 15¢ reproduced the landing of Columbus by Vanderlyn in the Capital, Washington, while the 24¢ showed the declaration of independence by Trumbull, in Yale Art Gallery, New Haven, Conn. ▣

Mourning stamps are stamps issued to mark national bereavement. The earliest stamps were printed in black or with a heavy black border, but more recent issues have tended to be less sombre. ▣

The first mourning stamps issued outside the home country of the deceased appeared in 1945 in memory of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Mourning stamps were issued on that occasion by Greece, Hungary, Haiti, Honduras and Nicaragua. Other countries, including El Salvador, Guatemala and Brazil, issued memorial stamps over a period of several years thereafter. ▣
