Some postal cancellations make for interesting reading

Cancellations/Postmarks

- The cancellation, or cancel for short, is the imprint on the postage stamp that invalidates it against future use.
- A postmark is the marking applied by a postal worker giving the place of mailing, the date of mailing and the time of mailing.

When it come to cancellations, there are sort of 3 basic types:

- The everyday kind with straight lines, wavy lines, circles, etc. There are several study groups dedicated to these.
- Special cancellations that publicize events, slogans, FDCs, - things like that.
- Pictorial cancels – these are cancels that have images, pictures or figures that focus on a special event or anniversary.

Mostly – I have a few “Specials” and “Pictorials” to show.

WHAT MORE SPECIAL OR PICTURESQUE THAN CROWNING A NEW QUEEN!

The Crown – The Queen

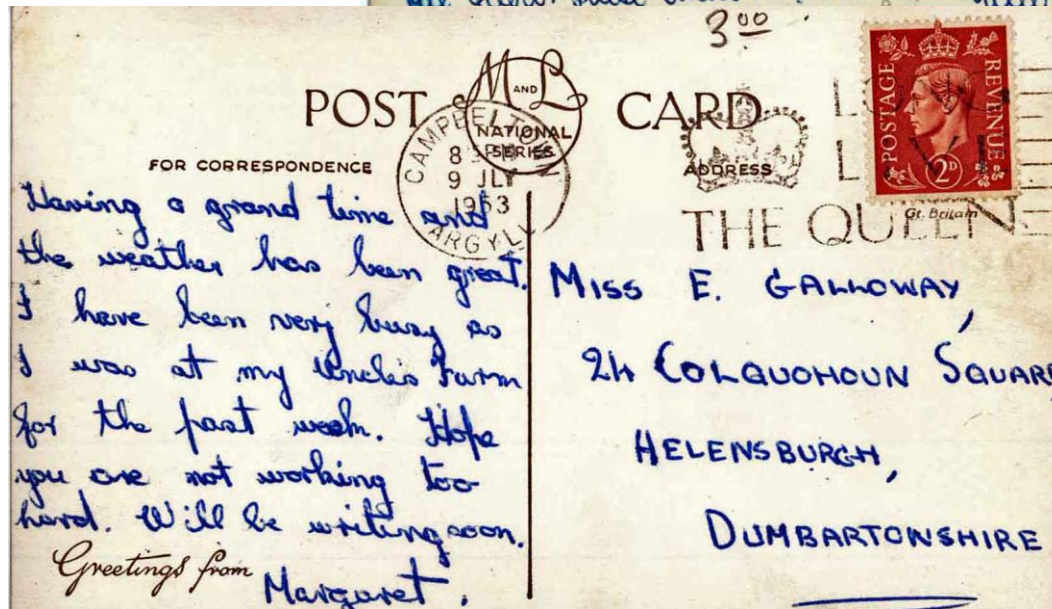

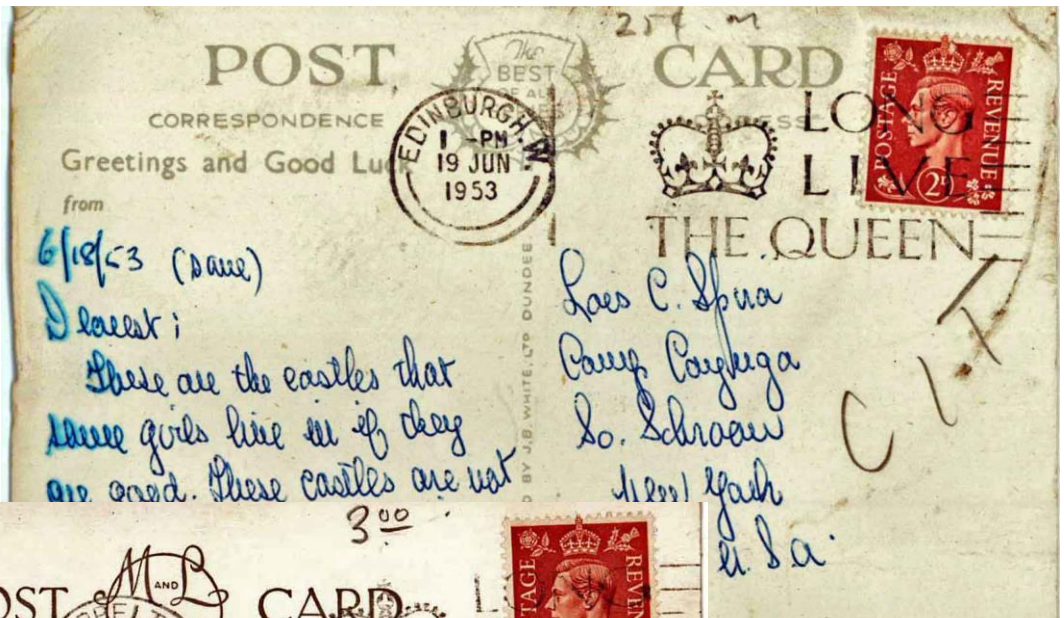

“LONG LIVE THE QUEEN”- a slogan, a “cheer,” – even a suggestion (which is surely coming true!)

This cancel was obviously prepared well in advance of the ceremony on June 3, 1953.

The crown pictured in the cancel and at the left on the 1'6 stamp is St. Edward's crown, used in the coronation. Weighs nearly 5 pounds. And the ceremony lasted 3 hours.

The “Long Live –” cancel continued a long life, even to a month later.

Notice – the stamps used are the usual King George ones, and the same stamp was used for local and foreign addresses.

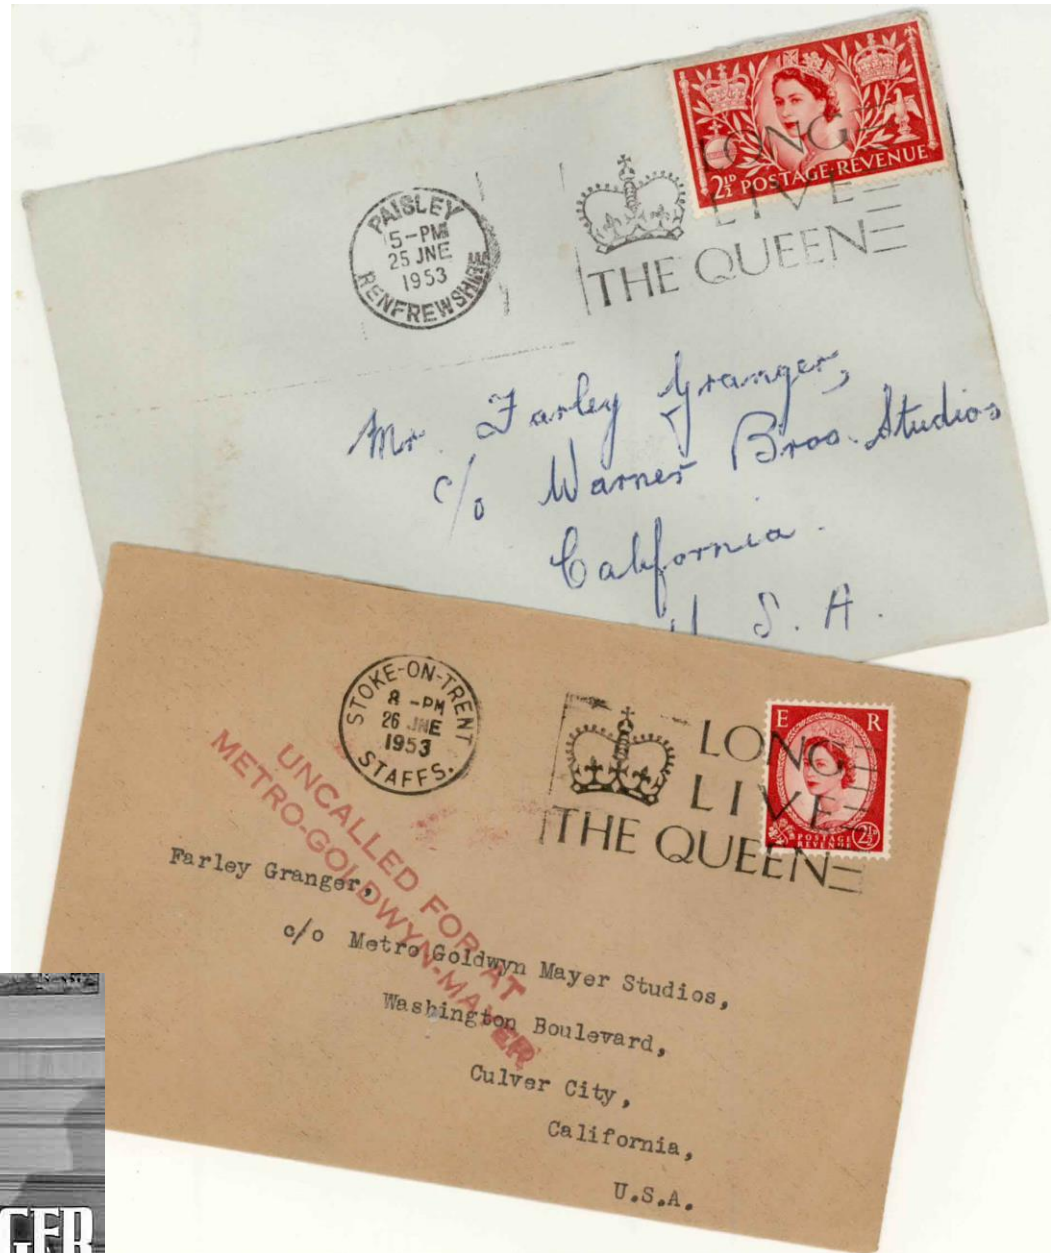

But let's break for a minute to look at the addressee on these covers –

Two young girls (probably), one from Scotland, did what lots of young girls did: tried writing to a favorite movie star, hoping for a response and perhaps a picture of her current heart-throb.

Farley Granger – handsome actor in the '40s-'50s, worked with MGM, starred in "Strangers on a Train" among others.

He never was at Warner Bros., but while with MGM, was away a lot, so didn't pick up his mail often – or just threw it back!

MORE ROYALTY – Cancels appeared on Aug. 4, 1980 – and after - to honor the Queen Mother's 80th birthday, along with a stamp.

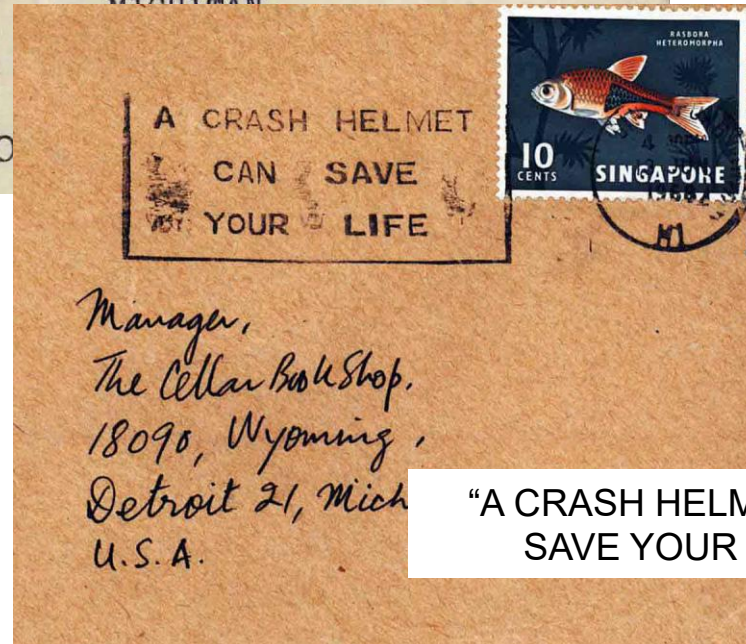

The "CROWN" here refers to a silver coin to honor the Queen's mother .

Not sure why a IOM cancel about a British item is over a Scotland stamp, mailed in Scotland. ??

“Marie Curie

The first Great Daffodil Appeal took place in 1986 with volunteers collecting donations and handing out fresh daffodils. Named for Marie Curie, Polish scientist, it is England’s biggest annual fundraising campaign to provide free care and support to people living with terminal illnesses. In 1995, Marie Curie replaced fresh flowers with fabric daffodil pins.

Postal Proclamations

Several cancels come directly from the postal departments:

You need stamps, so it is good to know that
“YOUR POSTMAN SELLS STAMPS”
At least in Canada in 1939.

Once you have your stamps,
“PLACE STAMP IN UPPER RIGHT- HAND CORNER.”

Interesting that this cancel is on a post card with NO stamp – One-cent printed indicia on this Canada post card in 1924.

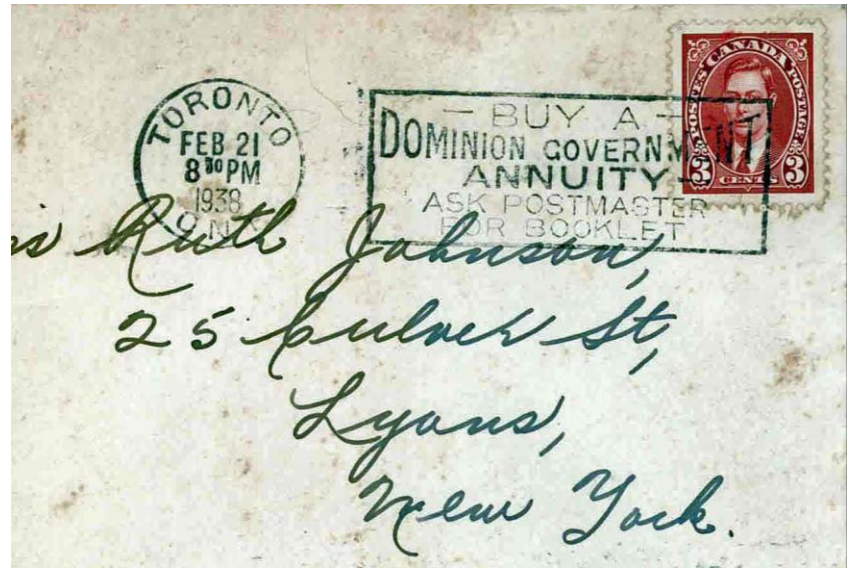

Too late for this one; maybe next time
