OUR
74th
YEAR

The Rochester Philatelic Association was organized on March 12, 1913. The first meeting took place at the Hotel Rochester downtown. In subsequent years the RPA met at the Municipal Museum, the Edgerton Park Museum and the Rochester Museum of Arts & Science on East Avenue. In 1976 the RPA moved to the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Vick B & East Avenue.

The RPA meets at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on the Second & Fourth Thursdays of each Month (except July and August) with meeting starting 8:00pm. All meetings are open to the public. Visitors and Guests are always welcome.

Down through the years, much has been accomplished in the effort to promote philately to the general public and to encourage new stamp collectors. A wide variety of planned programs have been featured at over 1200 RPA meetings. Some of these activities were: Outside & local speakers, slide programs, movies, auctions, mini-exhibits, tours & trips to National Stamp Shows, swap nights, and other projects. Through out this time there has also always been an Annual Banquet & Auction.

COVERS, POSTAL HISTORY, & FOREIGN STAMP COLLECTIONS

The year 1963 was the Golden Jubilee of the Rochester Philatelic Association and to honor this event a national stamp show with over 700 competitive frames was proposed and staged in Rochester's New Midtown Plaza Mall. It was a huge success! This paved the way for subsequent larger stamp exhibitions with a Dealers' Bourse, like TOPEX'67 and APS'68 stamp shows. Incidentally, it was the APS'68 stamp show that inaugurated the "World Series of Philately". The Grand Award winner of that APS'68 show and the winners of other national stamp shows that followed Rochester's example developed the "Champion-Of Champions" Competition on a nationwide scale. Today there are 35 National Stamp Exhibitions that feed Grand Award Winner to the APS Annual Convention. The current ROPEX (Rochester Philatelic Exhibition) title started in 1971 and is known through out the U.S. & Canada as one of the best National Stamp Shows hosted by a single organization, the Rochester Philatelic Association. ROPEX has been a Host to the American Philatelic Society (APS), the American Topical Association (ATA), and the former Society of Philatelic Americans (SPA) in the past and we hope to work with these organizations again at future ROPEX Stamp Shows.

The RPA is a federally recognized Not-For-Profit organization registered with the IRS. Besides the meeting and other activities, the RPA publishes a bimonthly newsletter called "Hinges & Tongs", which is mailed to the membership. The "H&T" features philatelic news, future RPA meetings, area stamp shows, and special events. People wishing to receive a sample copy of the "H&T" can request a copy by writing to the RPA's address:

RPA, P.O. BOX 10206, BRIGHTON STA., ROCHESTER, NY

The RPA is an affiliate club of the American Philatelic Association (APS) in good standing. The RPA maintains one of the best philatelic loaning libraries in the North East open to its membership. No matter where a collector's stamp interests lie, the Rochester Philatelic Association hopes to be of service. Stop in a visit the RPA.....
