Introduction

Being an engineer has always pushed me to detail and the Wheel of Fortune cancellation is one of the most detailed examples produced. As I collected past issues of magazine articles related to Wheel of Fortune, I found that Arthur Beane intended to write a detailed study of the cancellation. Arthur passed away before he could accomplish this task. In my search for state lists of Wheel of Fortune towns, very little was found. This prompted me to take up the task that Arthur planned to write. The last few years were spent producing this book.

Contents:

This book contains the history of (1) F.P. Hammond Company, (2) detail of each town postmark alphabetized by state, (3) an alphabetized listing of towns, and (4) a Wheel of Fortune checklist which is located inside the back pocket.

General comments:

I have redrawn the 824 postmark date stamps to better represent what they looked like. Many could not be shown as stamped on the covers because they were either too light or incomplete. Those towns listed without a postmark are identified in published books, but no photo has been found to date; therefore, I could not verify these towns.

Thirty-eight towns used two different duplex Wheel of Fortune cancellations and three of these used three different postmarks. These are:

Port Austin, MI Westwood, NJ Myrtle Point, OR

In the representative postmarks below, the metric size is shown in red, and is measured from outside to outside. Those postmarks which are not round show their size-- first horizontally then vertically.

No study can be totally complete since new listings are always being found, so I'm always looking for new postmarks with the Wheel of Fortune cancellation.

Cancels commonly mistaken for Wheel of Fortune.

This book refers to the Wheel of Fortune as shown in Figure 1. It is divided into 24 segments.

Below are some of the cancels that are mistaken for the Wheel of Fortune cancellation. The most interesting is the one from Florida NY. (Figure 2) as it is the most similar but contains 32 segments and the year extends past the circle border. I've located three copies of this cancellation from 1889-1890. Four additional cancellations are shown in Figure 3.

MOST PERFECT CANCELLATION

The best two Wheel of Fortune cancelled covers found to date are from Welcome, WV dated August 8, 1885 and from Barr's Store, IL dated October 20, 1886. These two covers were probably cancelled early on in the life of the handstamp as very little ink has accumulated into the die and the circles are nearly perfect.

Covers of Interest

Covers of Interest

In Figure 3, the founding father of Gottenburgh, Nebraska sends a cover to his home country Sweden. It is a very rare opportunity to find a cover which has two different town Wheel of Fortune cancellations as shown in Figure 4.

History

Every book begins somewhere and this one starts in 1872. A young entrepreneur, Fred P. Hammond, started a company in Chicago, Illinois to produce rubber based devices to imprint postmarks and cancellations on postal mail. This was enabled by the invention of Vulcanized Rubber and a vulcanizing machine to use this rubber.

In 1839, Charles Goodyear stumbled on a process to convert natural rubber to a more durable product and obtained a patent in 1844. Vulcanization is a chemical process of heating rubber in combination with sulfur. This increased the rubber's strength and durability and reduced its stickiness.

The Peerless Vulcanizer shown in the 1898 cover below may have been the type of machine used to make the Wheel of Fortune (WOF) canceller (Figure 1) introduced in 1880.

Today this highly detailed fancy rubber canceller is called Wheel of Fortune.

From Baltimore, Maryland dated April 2, 1898

F.P. Hammond operated his business at 164 Madison Street in Chicago, Illinois and a manufacturing facility at 17 South LaSalle Aurora, Illinois. In 1880 he moved his manufacturing facility to Plum street Aurora, Illinois. This 1880 move corresponded with the introduction of the Wheel of Fortune cancellation as seen in this ad. (Figure 2)

I classify the Wheel of Fortune handstamps by seven different types (Figure 4)--six duplex and one with only the Wheel of Fortune die. Type 0 of the WOF is coupled with many different circular date stamps (CDS).

This graph (Figure 8) shows the number of known Wheel of Fortune covers per year. The peak year is 1884 but a few covers have been found out to 1917. The postal usage of the WOF had a steep decline starting in 1887 because of the following U.S. Post Office rule. “The Department furnishes metal postmarking stamps. The use of rubber stamps is not authorized, as the ink furnished by the Department cannot be used with them.”

This decline in the use of rubber stamps spelled the end of the Wheel of Fortune cancel. F.P. Hammond sold his company to Albert S. Carter in 1887 and Carter moved the company to Denver, Colorado on June 1, 1889.

A business reference listed that in 1884 F.P. Hammond was an Assistant Postmaster and in 1889 he was listed as working for Adams Express Company.

Fred P. Hammond died in an accident at his home on November 10, 1929. He is buried in the West Aurora, Illinois cemetery. (Figure 9)

The A.S. Carter Company is still in operation today (2019) and owned by Dale Young and located in Cotopaxi, Colorado, a small town with a census of 47.

James Cole in his introduction of his 1995 book “ Cancellations and Killers of the Bank-note Era 1870-1894” says this about the Wheel of Fortune. Quote” The commercially prepared and supplied “Wheel of Fortune ” cancel, used in well over 600 towns with 350 of them listed here”.

James Cole was correct more than 600 towns used the Wheel of Fortune this book details usage in 1057 towns in the United States, Mexico, and Guatemala. The chart below shows the number of towns in each state. The top three states are Illinois with 96 towns, Kansas with 94 towns and New York with 78 towns.

Wheel of Fortune Steam Boat 1845-1847

In the preparation of this book I found an interesting cover about a steamer called Wheel of Fortune.

Side Wheel
Steamer cover
dated
August 12, 1846

The “Wheel of Fortune”, a side-wheel cargo/passenger steamer, was under construction from 1844 to 1845.

In newspapers from 1846 in the Louisville Daily Courier and the Daily Picayune advertised that the “Wheel of Fortune” traveled the Gulf of Mexico coast between New Orleans and Biloxi the towns between them and the Mississippi, Red, and Ohio Rivers. The primary route was round trips between New Orleans and Louisville.

At 3:00 am on July 11, 1847, the steamer “Wheel of Fortune” caught fire and burned on the Ohio river.
