

ARGENTINE AIR MAIL: CARRIERS, ROUTES AND RATES,

1917-1946

To illustrate through a history of the carriers of air mail to and from Argentina the development of domestic and foreign air mail routes and the evolution of Argentine postal air mail rates.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- I. Early Years, 1917-1924 (Frame 1)
- II. The German Presence, 1925-1941: Aero-Lloyd Córdoba, Junkers Mission, Sindicato Condor, Zeppelins, Deutsche Lufthansa (Frames 1-2)
- III. French Initiatives, 1925-1940: Compagnie Générale Aéropostale-Aeroposta Argentina, 1925-1933, Air France. (Frames 2-5)
- IV. US Airlines, 1929-1946: New York Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires Airline (NYRBA), Panair (Panagra and Pan American). (Frames 5-9)
- V. Italian Service, 1939-1941: Linee Aeree Transcontinentale Italiane (LATI). (Frames 9-10)
- VI. Domestic Carriers: 1933-1946: Aeroposta Argentina, Lineas Aereas del Estado, Corporación Sudamericana de Servicios Aereos (Frame 10).
- VII. Minor Carriers, 1937-1938: Faucett, Compañía Aeronautica Uruguay S.A. (Frame 10).
- VIII. The British Arrive, 1946: British South American Airways (Frame 10)

Post card celebrating the first air mail service between Argentina and Europe, March 1, 1928.

Highlights of the Exhibit are matted in red.